INDEX TO VOLUME V.*

THE LINES IN SMALL CAPITALS DENOTE ARTICLES.

A

ANTHONY'S NOSE—Address to - 209

ATTACK UPON COL. DUANE in Davis's "Memoirs of Burr"—A short notice of - - - - - - 333

ARAB'S HORSE, THE - - 488

AMERICA, AND THE EARLY ENGLISH POETS - - - - - *489

Spencer's Fairy Queen, *489; Dedication of the first edition of this poem to Queen Elizabeth, ib.; Extract from it, ib.; Michal Drayton, *490; The Virginia Voyage, selected from, *491; Epistle to George Sandy's do., *492; Daniel, *494; Extract from his Musophilus, *494; George Herbert, *495; Extract from, ib.; Andrew Marvel, *495; Anecdote of, *496; His poem of the Emigrant, *496; Bishop Berkeley, *497; His verses on the prospect of planting the arts in America, *497.

APPENDIX— - - - 97

Article on the Supreme Court in Vol. I. of the Democratic Review—Mr. Ingersoll's Speech on Charters of Incorporation, a continuation of it, 97; Explanations respecting the doctrines advanced in those papers, 98.

"A THING of Beauty is a joy forever" 60

"Advice to my country" by Mr. Madison 258

America Vespucci - - - 239

A REVERIE, by S. W. Cone - - 486

AMERICAN POETRY, RECENT, (Review of Bianca Visconti, Velasco—The Ruins of Athens and Geraldine, &c.) - 523

Poetical reputation of difficult acquirement now, 523; Kettell's specimens, ib.; Bryant the best American Poet, 525; Mr. Halleck, 526; Charles Sprague, 527; George D. Prentice, ib.; Remarks on Bianca Visconti, 529; Extracts from Mr. Sergeant's Velasco, 531; Mr. George Hill's Poems, 533; His lines "To a flower on the Athenian Acropolis" extracted, 534; Mr. Dawes's Geraldine condemned, 535; Extracts from, 537-8; Athenia of Damascus praised, 539; "Art thou happy lovely lady" extracted, 540; Poetical Resources of America boundless, 541.

A l'Abri - - - - 611

B

BRYANT, WM. CULLEN, Lines by

The Future Life - - 49

The Fountain - - 405

Ode by, written for the 50th Anniversary of the Inauguration of Washington, April 30th, 1839. - 498

BALLOT BOX, THE—by M. W. Beck 201

Bank Charters, Mr. Ingersoll's Speech on legislative control over - - 99

BUTLER, B. F., Memoir of, (with portrait) 33

Born at Kinderhook—Irish ancestry, 34; Education, 35; Studies law in Mr. Van Buren's office, 36; Activity as a politician—First appearance in the Supreme Court, 38; Appointed District Attorney of New York 1821, 38; Complimentary letter from the court, accepting his resignation in 1825, 39; Appointed one of the committee to revise the Statutes, ib.; Member of Assembly, 40; Regent of the University 1829, ib.; Attorney General U. S. 1833—Letter from the citizens of Albany on this occasion, (Note) ib.; His character as a lawyer in this station, 41; Secretary of War, ad interim, 1836, 42; His character, 43-48.

Benjamin, Park, Esq., Lines by, "To Blanche" - - - - 222

C

CANADA QUESTION, THE—Second Article— - - - 8

Disadvantages of the Administration from its firmly neutral policy on this question, 8; The Administration party vindicated, 9;

* In some copies 8 pages beginning with 489 are incorrectly numbered as 469, etc., and in this index are marked with an asterisk. *

Difference between the cases of Canada and Texas, ib.; Rendered obvious by reasons drawn from her situation, 10-11; Impossibility of a war with England, 11; Principles of American Foreign Policy, 12-13; Difficulties under which Mr. Van Buren had to carry them out, 14; Popular demands of the Canadians irresistible, 15-16; Justice of Canadian discontents, 17; Question now, not reform, but Independence, 18; Anecdotes of the Canadian Administration, (Note) 18-19; Canadian Independence inevitable, 19; The Canadian leaders vindicated from the calamities of Insurrection, (Note) 20; First outbreak unpremeditated, 21; Lord Durham's policy condemned, 24; His failure, 25; His duplicity towards the Bermuda Exiles, ib.; Fate of prisoners, 27; Considerations in favor of America co-operating with Canada, Stated—and examined, 29.

CENSUS, THE APPROACHING - 77
Its importance, 77; Mr. Legare's resolution, 78; Professor Leiber's memorial, 79; Considerations in taking it, 80; Calculations as to the probable result thereof, 82; Future increase of population, 83; Considerations on this account for a steady adherence to the Democratic policy, 84.

CHANNING ON "SELF CULTURE." - 85
Address introductory to the Franklin Lectures, delivered at Boston, September 1, 1838, 85; Position of Dr. Channing, ib.; Extracts from the Oration, 86-91.

CREDIT SYSTEM, THE, Second Article. 147
Mr. Carey's Reply noticed, 148; Definitions of terms, 151; Executive interference, 153; Paper money agrarianism, 157; Change of policy, 159; Free Banking, 160; Consequences, 163-168; Degradation of the English laboring class, 169; Public debts, 171; New England banks, 172-176.

D

DIVER, THE, From the German of Schiller, by the author of "Pocahontas." 29

DA PONTE, MRS., Lines by
"THE HEART'S TRUST." - - 467

DEFALCATIONS, (Review of the Report of the Committee on the Swartwout Defalcation) - - - 468
Neglect of their duty by the Committee of Investigation, 468; Partial character of the Investigation, 469; Whig speeches, 470; Proceedings of the Whigs, 471; Factious origin of the Committee, 472; Secret ballot, ib.; Proceedings of the Committee, 473; Mr. Hoyt, 474; Closing scenes in New York, 475; Examination at Washington, 476; Injustice of the Investigation, 477; Aim of the Opposition, 481; Failure to develop the true character of the Defalcations, 482; Results to be attained by a proper investigation, 483; Defalcation of Price, 484; Unjust charges by the Committee against public officers, 485.

DUANE, COL. Vindication of - 333

DON CARLOS. Scene from - - 580

E

EUROPE LONG AGO - - - 61
English scenery and character, 61; Social privileges of rank, 65; London, 67; Kensington Gardens and Hyde Park, 68; Cobbett, 69; Erskine, ib.; Fox, 70; France, 71; Murat—Bonaparte, described, 72-73; Waterloo, 74; Arrests in Paris, 75.

EARLY AMERICAN TRAVELS. Father Hennepin - - - 190

——— Concluded - - 381

EPIGRAM. From the Greek of Anacreon - - - - 260

Eoneguski - - - - 340

Executions in Canada, The - - 343

F

Flowers of Congressional Rhetoric - 94

Free Banking - - - 237

FAIRIES' DIRGE, THE - - 309

FRANCONIA MOUNTAIN NOTCH, THE New Hampshire - - - 377

G

GLANCES AT CONGRESS. No. 2. - 261
The Hall of the House, 261; Original design, 262; The Speaker, 263; Mr. H. A. Garland, Clerk, ib.; General Dromgoole, Memoir and sketch of, 264; Major Garland, do., 267; Mr. Taliaferro, 270; Mr. Cushman, 271.

GENERAL BANKING LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, - - 427
The measure a concession of the Whig Party to the progress of Democratic sentiments, 427; Abstract of the Law, 429; Examination of the Law, 431; Comptroller's report, 433; Prospective capital, 434; Number and capital of banks subscribed under the Law, (Note) 434; Operation of the Law, 435; Notes issued under the Act, 437; Benefits of the measure, 439; Evils, 441; General considerations, 442; The remedy suggested, 445.

H

Hawthorne Nathaniel, Tales of the Province House, No IV. Old Esther Dudley, by - - - - - 51

Hennepin, Father, His new discovery of a vast country in America described, - - - - 191-381

Statement of the controversy respecting, 394; The testimony against him examined, and the originality of his claim defended, 395-405.

I

Ingersoll, Charles J., Speech of, in the Convention of Pennsylvania, on legislative and judicial control over Bank Charters. - - - - 99

The doctrine that fraud in produring a bank charter violates it, denied, 99; State grants of private property cannot be resumed, ib.; Charters of Incorporation not to be confounded with bank charters, 100; Charter rights not more sacred than personal, 101; though made so by Judicial decisions, ib.; this is a mischievous error, ib.; The power of a state legislature to incorporate questioned, ib.; and examined, 102-107; Bank charters not contracts, 107; Three classes of contracts—private, municipal, and political, 108; Evils incident to the system, 110; Legislation to be made the cure, as it was the cause, ib; power of a legislature over vested rights asserted, 112; difference between corporate franchise and private vested rights, ib; difference between the charters of freedom of the middle ages and modern bank charters, 115; arguments answered, 116; a bank bonus no compensation to a State for the portion of its sovereignty alienated in a charter, 117; the question whether a law is a contract examined 120; judicial constructions of law investigated, 124, 140; the power of a legislature over banking interests, exemplified, 142; important considerations in conclusion.

K

Know'st Thou the Harp - - 335

L

L. E. L. - - - - - 337

Lines.—"A thing of Beauty is a joy forever." - - - - 589

Law's System of Finance - 324

History of the System, 324; Commercial Company formed in 1717 by Law, 326; Royal Bank, 327; Company of the Indies, 328; Extraordinary attempts to keep up a paper circulation, 329; Immense issue of paper, 330; Depreciation and overthrow, 331.

Lord Durham's Report, Review of, 542

Its ability—Mr. Turton—Its admissions prove the correctness of the view taken by the Democratic Review of the Canadian affairs, 543; Analysis of the Report, Lower Canada, 544; The French party, and the English, ib.; Distinctions and civil struggles between the parties, 545; Character of the English population, 546; Mr. Papineau eulogized, (Note) 547; Want of education among the French habitans, ib.; Refusal of the British government to educate the people, 549; Origin of the national hostility between the races, ib.; The French party vindicated from Lord Durham's charges of treasonable insurrection, (Note) 551; Reduction of emigration, 552; Remarks on the positions of the Report—Discontents in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward's Island, (Note) 556; The course of the Assembly vindicated, 557; Disorganization of the Province, 558; Upper Canada, 562; Sir Francis Head's policy, Mackenzie's insurrection, 566; Appeal to the American press, 567; The clergy Reserves, ib.; Administration of justice, 570; New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward's Island, ib.; Public lands and emigration, 571; Vast difference between the American and British side of the line, 572; The remedy as proposed by Lord Durham, 573; Examined, 576-579.

M

Match of Chess between Washington and New York - - - 96

Maine Boundary Question - - 342

Madison, and the Madison Papers, Reviewed. - - - - - 243

Importance of the Constitution, 243; scanty materials existing for a history of it; importance to the country of a full report of the Debates, 244; Mrs. Madison's letter to Congress, and their purchase of the Manuscripts, 245; description of the work, and extracts from it, 246-249; Anecdote of Franklin at the signing of the Constitution, 250; Memoir of Mr. Madison, 250-259.

MONT CENIS. From the recollections of a traveller.
The road described, 363; the Simplon, Chamberry, the residence of Rousseau and Madam Warens, 364; Mon Melian, 365; Scenery of the High Alps, ib.; St. Michaels, 366; Lines from Wordsworth, 367; Village procession, 369.

MUSINGS - - - - - - 418

Martineau, Harriet, Quotation from - 76

Montgomery's Guatemala - - 605

N.

NEW YORK ELECTION, THE, Second Article.
Nothing in it discouraging to the Democracy, 3; Decisive victories of the Democratic party in other parts of the Union, 4; Causes of the result,—the means employed by the Whig party, 4-5; Enervating effects of long ascendency in the Democratic party itself, 5; Erroneous policy pursued during the crisis of 1837, 6; Success of the Democratic party certain in the Presidential election of 1840, 7.

NEW JERSEY CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION, THE, - - - - - 590
Remarks, 590; identity of the case with the Pennsylvania Conspiracy, ib; statement of the circumstances, 591; condition of the Federal party, 595; the Harrisburg Circular, 596; copy of the Cumberland return, 597; (Note) remarks on it 598; the Middlesex return 599; copy of it, ib; (Note) conduct of the Governor and council, 600; considerations, 601; table of the actual vote, ib; (Note) reasons in justification of the Governor's course 602; examined and refuted, by the facts and precedents, 603-5; gross inconsistency of the federal policy proved by their course in similar cases, 605,-6; observations on the measure, 607.

NOTES OF THE MONTH 92-237-337-517-609.

ST. JUAN DE ULLOA - - 92
Remarks on its capture by the French, 93; The French blockade condemned, ib.

FLOWERS OF CONGRESSIONAL RHETORIC—
Sample of bombast from Mr. Menefee's speech, 94; and same from one by Mr. Prentiss, 95.

MATCH OF CHESS BETWEEN NEW YORK AND WASHINGTON, and state of Moves - - - 96

FREE BANKING - - - 237
State of things under which the free banking law of New York was enacted, 238; Recent legislation on this subject erroneous, ib.; Unrestricted freedom the remedy, 239.

AMERICA VESPUCCI - - 239

L. E. L. - - - - - 337
Particulars from the London papers relative to the death of Mrs. Maclean—letter from, 338; "The Polar Star," by, ib.; Letter from her to Mrs. Hall, 339;

EONEGUSKI, a novel—Notice of - 340
Extract from, describing a salmon hunt, 341; Plot of, ib.

MAINE BOUNDARY QUESTION - 342
The Executions in Canada, 343.

NOTICE - - - - - 520

PHOTOGENIC DRAWING - - 517
Mr. Daguerre's new invention—Professor Morses's description of it, 518; Mr. Fox Talbot's process, ib.; His account of it, 519;

HENNEPIN'S TRAVELS—Voyages au Nord confirm view taken of his veracity in the April Number - 520

MONTGOMERY'S GUATEMALA - 609
The Atzalan described, 609; Carrera, ib.; General Morazan, 610.

A L'ABRI—by Willis—Notice of - 611

PHOTOGENIC DRAWING, Further particulars respecting - - 611

WESTERN LITERATURE - - 612

THE NEW YORK HISTORICAL SOCIETY 612

NIGHT, THE - - - - - 446

New York Historical Society, The - 612

O.

OLD OAK TREE THAT GRACED THE LAWN, THE - - - - - 359

OLD IRONSIDES ON A LEE SHORE, by an eye witness - - - - - 421

ORIGINAL OF THE NATIONAL MELODY, YANKEE DOODLE, by Porson Junior. 213

ODE FOR THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF WASHINGTON'S INAUGURATION, by W. C. Bryant. - - - 498

P.

POLITICAL PORTRAITS WITH PEN AND PENCIL, No. XI. Memoir of Benjamin Franklin Butler - - - 33
——— Portrait of— - - ib.
No. XII. Memoir of Silas Wright, jr. 409
PEACE AND WAR. - - - 288
History and objects of the American Peace Society, 288-289; Examination of the principles of the peace societies, 293; Scriptural arguments 294; moral considerations, 295; establishment of a High Court of Nations a sublime idea, 305; examined, 306; importance and interest of the peace movement, 308.
PUBLIC CURRENCY - - - 311
(Review of the Report of the Committee of Finance. Senate Document No. 113. Third Session, twenty-fifth Congress.)
Assertions of London Quarterly for January, 311; the late suspension, 313; imposition, 314; humorous illustration of the absurdities of the "credit system," ib.; Secretary of the Treasury's Circular to Consuls, 315; Mr. Trist's letter in reply eulogized, ib.; Buenos Ayres and Havana, 317; forcible extract from Mr. Trist's letter on the importance of a specie currency, 318; private letter respecting the wretched state of finances in Brazil, 321; bankrupt law, 322; political danger of associations, 323.
POVERTY, THE CAUSES OF - - 448
(Review of Public and Private Economy, by Theodore Sedgwick.)
Contrast between his writings and Mr. Carey's, Dr. Dyott, 449; John Law and M. Storch, 450; importance of a sound currency, 451; Philadelphia paper money school, 452; popular excesses, Bank of Maryland, 453; paper money insecure, 455; commercial men, 456; Hume's Essays, Pauperism, 457; Poor Law in England, 458; origin of English pauperism, 459; Debt of England, 461; State debts, 462; Mr. Webster's prediction, 465; Taxation the inevitable consequence of a paper system, 466.
Photogenic Drawing - 517-610

R

REVOLUTIONARY REMISCENCES OF AN OLD SOLDIER. - - - - 203
REVOLUTION, THE SECOND WAR OF 499
By a Virginian.
REVIEW of—
Channing on Self Culture - - 85
Father Hennepin's Travels 190-381
Madison's MS., Debates of the Convention - - - - - 243
Report of the Committee of Finance
Senate Document No. 113, Third Session, Twenty-Fifth Congress 324
Sedgwick's Public and Private Economy - - - - - 448
Report of the Investigating Committee - - - - - 468
Bianca Visconti, Velasco, The Ruins of Athens and Dawe's Poems 539
Lord Durham's Report - - 542

S

SONNET, The Vestal Lamp, - - 50
" To a Child, - - - 202
" To a Lady, - - - 332
" Andrew Jackson, - - 466
SPECIE CLAUSE, The, - - - 223
Exaggerated misrepresentation of the Democratic policy, 223; Power of the paper money system, 224; True theory of money, 225; Errors respecting the insufficiency of specie refuted, 227; Expediency of paper money repudiated, 228; Credit not dependent on bank paper, 229; Evils of an unstable measure of value, ib.; Wretched state of our bank note currency, 231; Considerations in favor of enacting the specie clause—the responsibility of Congress to provide a remedy, 233; Insufficiency of a National Bank, 234; A Specie Revenue adequate, ib.; Compromise suggested, 236.
SONG, "Though 'neath the winter's dreary chill," - - - - 260
SONG TO ALICE, - - - - - 571
STANZAS, - - - - - 331
St. Juan de Ulloa - - - - 92
SUN OF THE CONSTITUTION, The, - 361
SOLDIER'S STORY, A, - - - 370
——— Notice respecting, 611.
Storch's "Exposition," Extract from, respecting Law's System of Finance - 324
SCENE FROM 'DON CARLOS,' - 580

T

TADMOR OF THE WILDERNESS, - 187
THE TWENTY-FIFTH CONGRESS, - 34
Review 347; Maine Question, 348; Divorce of Bank and State, ib.; Firm stand of the Administration during the suspension, ib.; Expectation of the Opposition, 349; The President's Message and its effects, ib.; Reaction, 351; Revolutions in favor of Democracy, 352;

The election in New York, the rescue of the Whig party from total dissolution, 353; Mr. Clay's movement on the Abolition question "a little too late," 357; Defalcations and Abolition, 356; Effects of the Defalcations more injurious to the Opposition than to the Administration, 358; Election in New Hampshire, 358; The Oppposition but a mere faction, 359.

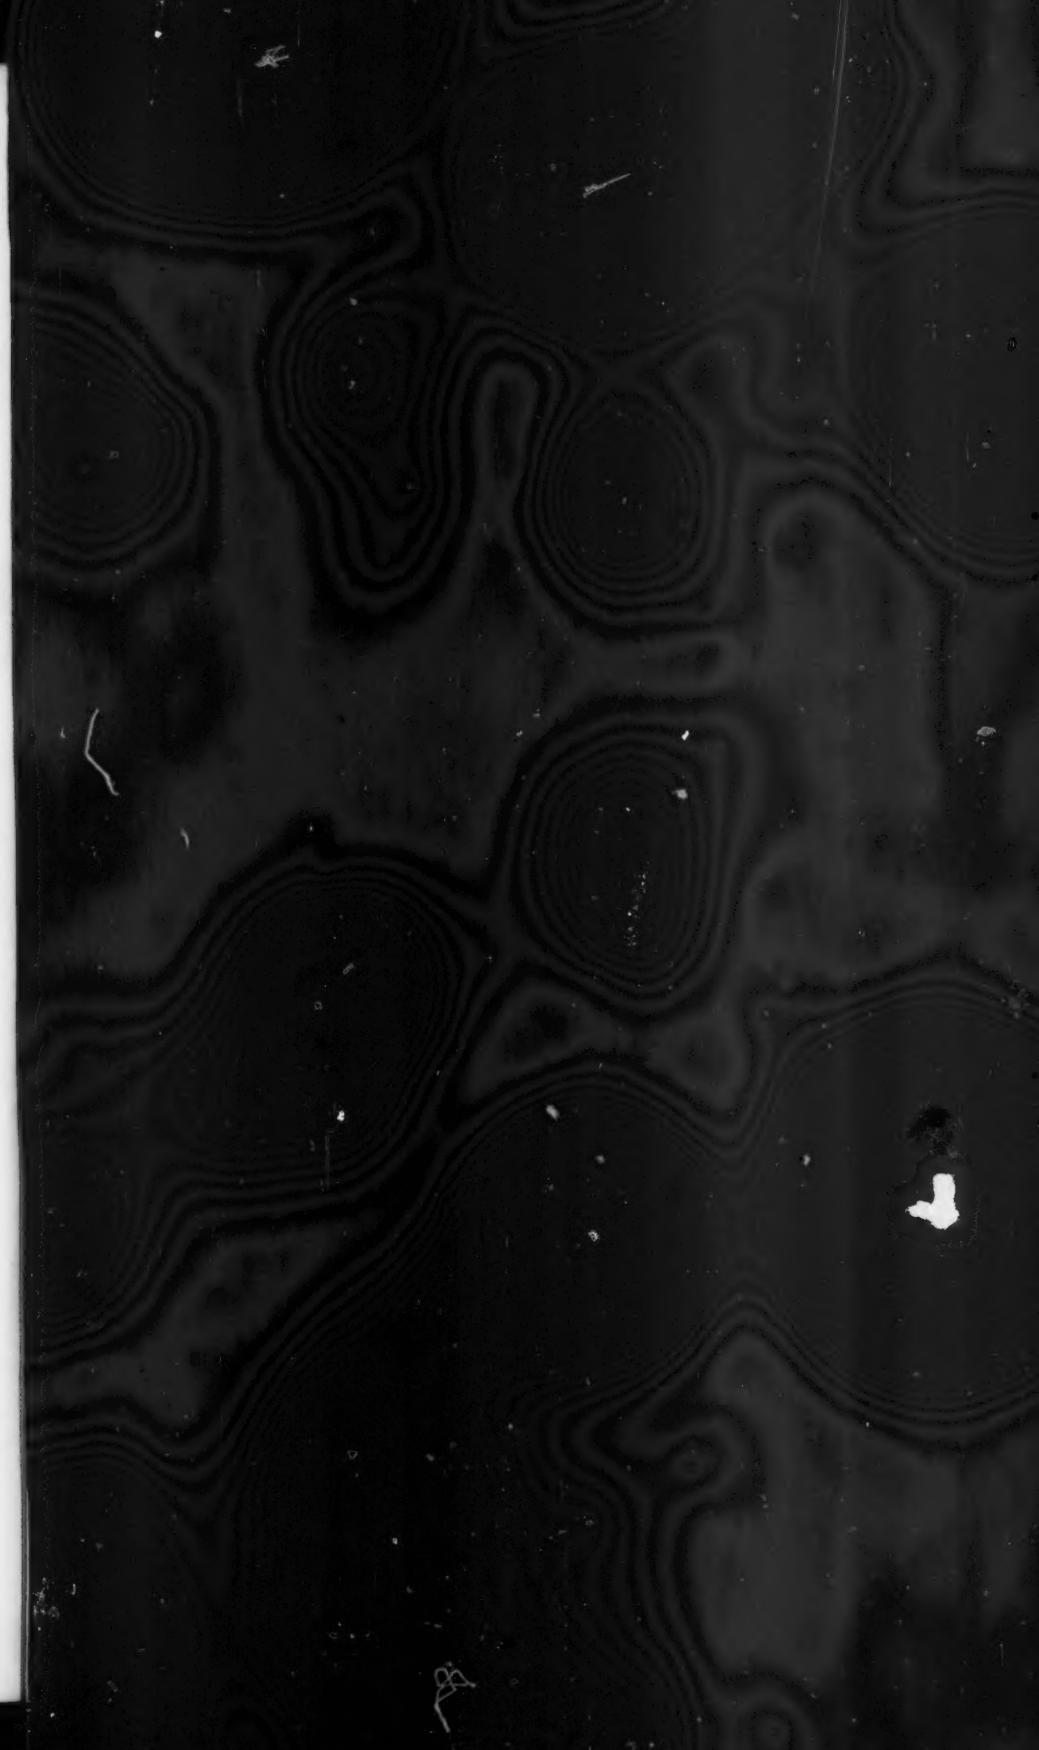
THE FUTURE LIFE, by William Cullen Bryant - - - - - - 49
THE VESTAL LAMP, A Sonnet, - - 50
TALES OF THE PROVINCE HOUSE, No. IV Old Esther Dudley, - - - 51
THE FOUNTAIN, by WILLIAM CULLEN Bryant, - - - - - - 405
THE BALLOT BOX, by M. W. BECK, - 201
To A CHILD, A Sonnet, - - - 202
To BLANCHE, by Park Benjamin, Esq., 222
THE SPECIE CLAUSE. - - - 223
THE FAIRIES DIRGE, - - - 307
THE ANNIVERSARY [of Cilley's death] an Elegy, - - - - - - 336
THE OLD OAK TREE THAT GRACED THE LAWN, - - - - - - 359
THE SUN OF THE CONSTITUTION, - 361
THE FRANCONIA MOUNTAIN NOTCH, 377
THE NIGHT, - - - - - - 446
THE CAUSES OF POVERTY, - - 468
THE NEW JERSEY CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION - - - - - 590

U—V

United States Bank, Petitions of the inhabitants of Chester, Pa, 1785, against The, - - - - - - - - 499
VINCENZIO THE VENETIAN, A tale of Chess, - - - - - - 177
" " " Concluded, 277

W

WOMAN, The trials of, - - - - 76
WESTERN VIRGINIA, A sketch in rustic rhymes, taken from Hampshire Co., Virginia, - - - - - - 273
WOMAN'S LOVE, - - - - - 286
WRIGHT, SILAS, jr., Memoir of, - 409
Born at Amherst Massachusetts, 1795; his family, mechanics, 410; student of Middleburg College, Vermont, 1811; Studies law under Mr. Martindale of Sandy Hill, New York, 411; licensed and removes to Canton, N. Y., early difficulties, 411; elected to the State Senate, 412; Presidential election of 1834, ib.; elected to the U. S. Senate 1833, 414; His character and pursuits, 416.
Western Literature - - - 612

Y


"YANKEE DOODLE," Original of the national Melody of, by Porson, jr. 213